Description:

The Robert Hoffman Property is a 1½-story, 5-bay side-gable cottage on the south side of Fairland Road in the Fairland vicinity, Montgomery County. Constructed in 1943, the building consists of a side-gable with a rear ell. The side-gable has a projecting front-gable with a canted bay window on the front elevation. The rear ell has a side-gable addition on the east elevation, while the rear elevation of the rear ell has a hipped roof addition.

The roof is covered with asphalt shingles, with an exterior brick chimney located on the east gable end. It is of wood-frame construction with asbestos shingle siding, and it has a concrete block foundation. The windows are wood 6/6 double-hung and the house has a partial porch within the side-gable on the front elevation. The porch has a concrete floor and three wood posts at the east corner.

There is one outbuilding associated with this building. The outbuilding is a shed with a gable roof covered with asphalt shingles. Constructed circa 1960, it is of wood-frame construction with wood clapboard siding. The structure is located south of the house. To the west of the shed is a brick hearth/grill.

The property is located on the south side of Fairland Road, with residential property to the south, east and west, and an open field to the north. The property's setting is suburban and is altered from its historic character by a recently constructed house to the east and circa 1960 development to the south.
